

JOAN KENLEY, PH.D.

Dr. Joan Kenley is an author, personal development consultant, and keynote speaker. She also specializes in facilitating dialogue and circle groups interested peace from within, questions that matter, and deep soul purpose. She is Director of Circle Initiatives for Pathways To Peace.

Launched in 2006, Dr. Joan Kenley's Talking Matters is on KRXA540 AM in Central California, Saturdays from 3-5PM, when the show also streams on the web at KRXA540.com. All the programs are archived 24/7 on Joan's website: www.joankenley.com. Her conversations with her guests are designed to touch your mind, body, heart, & soul. This is a 501 (C) (3) project of Pathways to Peace.

Joan recently authored, Whose Body Is It Anyway? — Smart Alternative and Traditional Health Choices for Your Total Well-Being (Newmarket Press. NY 1999). It's a book she had to write, having faced her own life-threatening and difficult-to-diagnose health problems. Joan was subsequently named one of Best Foods' health experts in 2002 for their national "Refresh Your Mind, Body, and Soul" program, and has recently served on the Alameda Public Health Commission.

Dr. Kenley has appeared on Dateline, 20/20, CNN, Good Morning America, and The Oprah Winfrey Show among others. She has been featured on countless radio shows and in many national publications, including The New York Times Sunday Magazine, Reader's Digest, Health, Wired, Cosmo, Fortune, and Allure.

Prior to her work as a psychologist and health professional, Dr. Kenley explored the healing aspects of working with the speaking voice. Her book, Voice Power (Henry Holt. NY 1989), details her innovative six-step BodyVoice Method™ that improves the sound of the voice through energetic releases that involve working with the mind, body, and emotions.

Kenley's work in broadcasting has led her to become known around the globe for her warm, friendly "voice" on such recognizable voice mail/digitized phone products as Pacific Bell's Message Center, Verizon's Information Services, and Nortel's Meridian Mail voice mail.
